

Is GB464 soy wax really worth using for candles?

With as many problems as soy wax can have, from frosting, to dips, no hot throw, bad batches, is it really worth using at all?

Thank you again for watching. If you have anything you would like to see please message me.

If you have any questions please leave a comment or feel free to contact me at anytime. I am more than happy to help in any way that I can.
